

I heard that Sinclair Broadcasting is putting heavy pressure on their TV stations to air an anti-John Kerry documentary days before the election.

Sinclair should not be allowed to manipulate the presidential election in this way. Nor should they be allowed to exert pressure on their members stations to run such a program.